ABOUT THE CONSPIRATORS

The Conspirators are a (relatively new) performance collective in Chicago dedicated to provoking thought and action through dynamic, immediate theater art. The Conspirators work exclusively in a style of neo-Commedia called "The Style"—a highly theatrical performance mode developed by movie stars Tim Robbins and John Cusack from the techniques of Ariane Mnouchkine, Commedia dell'Arte, Bugs Bunny cartoons, and punk rock, as historically performed by New Crime Prod. (R.I.P.) and The Actors' Gang. The company also offers Style workshops to interested performers of all caliber.

This project is partially supported by grants from the City of Chicago
Department of Cultural Affairs &
Special Events and The Illinois Arts Council Arts Agency.

FROM THE CURATOR

Six years ago, we first gathered to share our performances and our love for the "JCS" concept album in a salon-like atmosphere. We had no idea then how much the concepts of fellowship, suffering, spring, renewal, sacrifice and rebirth would mean to us on Easter 2021, but we sure drank some wine and had a good laugh. Now it's your turn! We hope you enjoy tonight's performances. — Wm.
